Nov 2011 email to GP.doc

Hello all,

Just closing the loop on a few items. I spoke with Curt on Friday night about my attempt to set up a follow up meeting with Chuck Salemi to try and confirm some pieces of information for which only he can provide the details. He asked to set up an in person meeting with his union rep and after talking with Curt, I didn't feel comfortable going through with this since EOPSS may be initiating personnel transactions early this week.

So, I was planning on talking to Dr. Vallaro tomorrow morning to check on a couple of things - e.g.,

a) confirmation that none of Chuck Salemi's monthly audits (which included Dookhan's samples) indicated issues/problems, specifically with Dookhan's work.

I also wanted to flag a few things that I found over the last couple of days while looking at data from a CD that our IT staff had created when Dookhan left DPH. I think that it's important to share this since it may help in potentially answering questions about motive. EOPSS/MSP have copies of all of Dookhan's files too but not sure if staff have already flagged these items. I wasn't sure what to do with this since the info isn't directly related to the QC/QA procedures that we were examining. She also had a bunch of photos of ADA Papachristos on her computer.

Monica

Hi George,

Thanks for everything. I am very grateful to you.

I am so sorry that you got involved in this situation. I never expected any of this to happen, especially to you. I am truly sorry and hopefully one day you can accept my apologies.

I have made some decisions that will affect the people in my life. I have decided to "give in" to whatever Surren wants. I know he wants a divorce but only under his terms and conditions, so he can file the papers himself rather than I. "Control Issues." So I have decided endure this misery. I will put on the ring, put on a smile and pretend everything is "great." I have been doing this act for several years, now. With this decision, he will never harass/ bother you again, Branden will not be affected yet and I will just deal with it.

In the 9 years I have known Surren, I have never cheated on him. It has never occurred to me to do something that cruel and dishonest. We met at a party while I was in college and developed a friendship. I made sure he was aware that I was focused on my education. My parents wanted me to have a good education, but also enjoy my life as well. Surren and I dated for 4 years and decided to get married in 2004. Maybe at 26 years old, I was too young to get married. I was so focused on my education that I was naïve to the reality of what he truly was and is. We both had completely different agendas in life. But I had made a commitment to him and I was going to ignore the obvious.

About a year after our marriage my grandmother passed away and I began to notice changes in him during that time. I was so grateful to him that he flew down to the Caribbean with for the funeral. But during that trip, I noticed he was flirting with a lot of women which was fine as long as you do not take the next step. I will give him the benefit of the doubt that it was only harmless flirting.

Another year went by; we travelled and worked on our careers. Surren decided that he wanted to further his education with a MA or PhD. I was so proud of his decision and encouraged him. So I decided to take some time off from my PhD to support his education. "It's so funny how people forget what others have done and given up to watch them succeed." In 2006, I found out I was pregnant. It was the best news ever – definitely planned. Pregnancy was great with no issues until Branden decided he wanted out . . . I think it was all the M&Ms I was eating. Because of Branden prematurity, we had a tough battle going back and forth to the hospital. I remember spending 12 – 16hr at the hospital each day, but it was all worth it in the end. I call him the energizer bunny. My friends say he is definitely my son . . . he never stops and always has a smile.

After Branden's birth, Surren and I drifted apart. Our relationship took a wrong turn and he stopped communicating with me and was never close to me. I suspected he was cheating on me but had no proof. I was so busy with my son, work and life in general that I did not pay attention to the signs. I knew he continued to see other women, but I was too scared to confront him. So I got up everyday put on the ring, the smile and pretended everything was OK.

A year ago, I became pregnant again, unfortunately at 5 months; I lost my baby girl, Alyssa. She was perfectly healthy and doctors could not figure out what happened. I think my dad said it best "Just was not meant to be." I could not stop apologizing to Surren for the lost of our baby girl . . . my greatest disappointment in life. But instead of grieving with me, he sought comfort elsewhere. I had to take care of the autopsy and funeral arrangements myself . . . which actually made me a strong and more confident person. I remember walking into Julie's office and she started crying. . . I told her I have shed enough tears for all of us and have made my peace. I saw her and said my goodbyes. . . and 10 years later, I will never wonder what if. Being poked and probed for the next several months was not fun, but Surren was never around. Still the doctors cannot figure out what the hell happened.

After all of this, I evaluated my life and Branden's future. I was definitely unhappy. I was not the Annie everyone knew . . . always happy and had a smile. I missed that. I did not realize how badly he treated me and how condescending he was. So I decided to separate which he had no objections too. We decided to stay in the house for Branden's sake and it actually works out better. He stays in the master room and as for me my guest room is fine. Except when I have guest staying over, I have to bunk with a 3 year old. It is actually kind of funny. I only have one rule. . do not bring your women friends at the house. I thought I made this separation issue easy; he can have the house and the material items with it. I will have custody of Branden and he can see him at anytime, do not really care about visitation. Surren loves Branden a lot and I will not try to hinder that bond. I wanted this divorce to be very quick and simple process for both of us, but obviously he decided to stoop to a new low. He has been reading my text messages and email at work ones and maybe my Gmail account. He is definitely an intelligent man. He emailed my parents and told them he will file for divorce in 6 months and was gracious enough to CC me the email. Know what I am perfectly content with that decision.

Anyways, this is the entire situation, at least my side. Whatever your reaction is to this letter. . . it is OK. I am blessed with wonderful parents, a great son and great friends. The simple pleasures in life are always better. Branden always put a smile on my face. Every Saturday and Sunday, he would get up at 7:00 am and into my room and say lets make breakfast. It is a great joy to cook with him and enjoy our meal. My mother worries about my future. . it will be fine. She is funny. I understand my future: divorce with a kid . . . perfectly fine with that concept. Most guys would not want to have the burden of women with a kid. Oh well. Life will definitely be different, but enjoyable (at least for me.) Branden had no doubt that he is loved and spoilt by both sides of the family, esp. my dad.

After reading Surren's text to you, there are no words to express how I felt (well, there is one, basically called me a whore). But there is only problem, I have not done anything. Still, it is not a nice feeling. I guess that is how he has treated me for past few years.

And I have been too nice and gullible. I am truly sorry about all of this. You were just trying to be a supportive friend. Thanks for trying to be there for me, George.

I can not give you relationship advice, hence my situation, but do not make the same mistakes I made. You work tremendously hard, and let no one tell you otherwise. It is a great characteristic. I wish more people possess that same ambition. In the short time I have known you; you have displayed sincere kindness and caring that I wish all guys would have. Make sure someone appreciates and respects that. . it is very difficult to find in today's society. Let know one tell that you are too nice. I finally began to genuinely smile and laugh when I talk to you. I was finally begun to open up to someone (meaning you) about life in general, because you are easy to talk too. Although, it was short lived, I appreciate you as a friend and confidant. And for that I will always be grateful. Thanks.

I wish you all the best in your future endeavors and I know that you will success in everything you set your mind to.

Sincerely,

Annie

Hi!!!,

All is well with me. And you? Hopefully, the Holidays are treating you well. My holidays have been nice and quiet, just the way I like it.

I'm so unmotivated this week . . . I've been sitting staring at my computer and paperwork. I've gone to Starbucks and gotten fresh air . . . just doesn't seem to work. Maybe I'll be more motivated next year. haha!! (just need to make it to till Friday)

I can totally understand the work dilemmas and constraints and the economic instability is not helping the matter. You have to do what is best for you and have no regrets. But a little advice, be patient and smile (laugh). The optimist in me: I believe that people who work hard and try their best, will be rewarded, eventually. I admire that you love your job . . . I wish more people could be like you (or at least have your passion).

GREEK!!! Haha!!! . . . I am a TOURIST!!! :) It is always interesting to overhear people's conversation about me (whether it be a compliment or cruel). Never judge a book by it's cover. I've never denied my heritage . . . I have so much more to learn and experience. I choose to contribute to my greek heritage, by helping others.

Please forgive me about my Greek nights comments, really I do not mean to insult anyone. But I have seen it all, always baffles me (same crap every year). I wish people would be themselves and have fun (but people are too busy trying to impress others). I am obligated to attend at least two events every year, usually Trelo Kalokairi & ?. I show up and leave the events very quietly . . . I did it for Thanksgiving and Christmas.

I'll give you a call later . . . I hope the new year brings you happiness and continued success.

Annie

Heyyyyyyyyyyy!

What's going on??!

Thank you for the card Annie You're always so nice to me, thank you so much, I really do appreciate it a lot!

I hope you are having a great Holiday Season!

I got a text from you last night about Greek night in Boston last night?! Did you go?

I read about the FBI stuff, and thank you for looking out for me Annie. I did re-apply back in October, and they just sent me an email saying that I cannot sit for the test because I have already taken it twice a few years ago..... Sucks..... I was so bummed out. That was my dream to get into the FBI, I don't know what I'm going to do know.

I really want to go FED, and I'm hoping that some day I can get into the US Attorney's Office as an AUSA, but I don't have any connections..... Crap.....

Luckily I love my job like crazy, but I'm not getting any money, so its getting harder and harder to survive..... But I don't want to leave, and staying within the law enforcement sector is my life dream.....

Anyway,

You are totally Greek!!!!!! Wow, I read below..... I was trying to understand what was going on, but it was tough, haha! But, I totally understood about Greek nights in Boston and Greece! Wow.

What's going on with you?

I hope everything is well Annie.....!

If you hear of anything in the FED stuff, let me know..... Any help would be greatly appreciated.

Let me know how you are doing.

Talk to you soon!

Kala hristugenna kai Eftyhismo to Neo Etos. Stin iyiasas!!!!

Efharisto. Ti kanis? Did you REALLY need to cut me off? I was heading home (on call). I will give Steve and Gino a call.

Sorrry!! Can't make the party. I will be in Greece from July 19th to August 8th. Stelios and my parents will attend the party.

Dude, I show up to a couple of Greek Boston events every year. Bijou was fun . . . It was like the old days at Gypsy Bar, Saints, and Whiskey Bar etc. Come on now: you go the club to relieve STRESS, have some drinks, dance, socialized and just have a good time and then go home. You are not going to meet someone to have a relationship there. . women go to the clubs to get men to buy them drinks and fylo. Nothing has changed. Echo parei poly geros gia afta ta pragmata.

I heard Trelo Kalokairi was a good time. Yorgos needs to delete those pictures . . . Makrigalos Beach (Pieria, central Macedonia).

Helen is very different. She must think I am a lush ..tell her after the 2nd drink it is all water with a lime. By the way, tell her I go to the Quincy YMCA every Saturday @ 10-ish, she can meet me there.

Is the Victoria Secret present for you or her? J Every woman loves gifts from VS but also get her like chocolates or something. Parakalo . . .

As for New Years Eve, I will drop by, but please forgive me, I am going to leave by 11pm or so. I choose to celebrate at home with a glass of wine and a movie on my sofa. Kreop is an kolotripa. Call the Greek market and preorder the meats and stuff. Steli said he can pick it up for you . . under the name Stelios Khan.

As for church, Gamoto!!! At least I show up for Easter and Xmas (weddings).

Athanassiades Chic,

Happy Name Day. WTF were you doing in B Street, Southie on Friday night.

Great seeing you guys (The Athanassiades Family) @ Bijou Nightclub for Sigma Pre-Thanksgiving Greek Night. WOW!!!, you age beautifully. The only person I know that comes to a nightclub and wears jeans, sweater and high heel boots and still lights up a room for both men and women. Poses telefono #? J

We missed you guys for Trelo Kalokairi. . . . alla I Ellada itan poly kalyter.
Where are the pics. . . Metaxas showed me some from the beach . . you make the Grecian waters look amazing and you look so relaxed. Where was that?

"Beauty, Intelligence and She's Greek," that was great article the Medicine Journal wrote about you and your contributions to the medicine/science & Greek community was so right about you. "Ena oraio elliniko korits."

My girlfriend loves you . I told her you were a workaholic, pizzaholic and chocoholic. She doesn't believe me. She can't believe how down to earth you are and fun and old school you are. She was impress that you insisted on paying for all your drinks.

Need some advice for a Xmas present: I was thinking of getting Helen a present from Victoria Secret. Do you think it is good idea or any suggestions?

You are coming for New Year's Eve? Kreopolides said he has going to play
"Rabiosa" for you.

I will see you at St. Catherine's on Xmas Day . Fr. Mousis tha charoume na sas doume stin ekklisi.

Here is the information for the FBI:

Cut off age is 37: we are currently processing a few applications.
People with law enforcement/ military background, the cut off age does not apply.
People of minority are being encouraged to apply
Depends what program he/she entering as (language, science, law etc)
If they have formal training in firearms, that's a major plus
Any training in the field is helpful in the application
The process is long due to the numerous applications and then testing.
There is a rumor of hiring freezes but it is the end of the year.
There are a couple of positions available but for SA in charge and GS 10-14
You may want to contact:

Boston: McManus (I know you have worked several cases with him)

Oregon: Gino (He may have a vacancy or can advise you in the west coast)

I will keep an eye and ear out for you. Things have changed in the agency.

Hey Annie!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!

Hope all is well too!

I'm so jealous you went to my homeland! But I'm glad you got to go away for a little bit, you are a very hard worker!
I hope work is going well!
Everything is the same with me, just working like crazy, but I love it!
DEA didn't work out, they never had another vacancy announcement, and by the time they do, I will be too old.... :(
I'm waiting on the FBI for my latest application that I submitted.....

I wanted to be an agent so bad!

Anyway, hope all is well with you Annie!

You're the best!
